

STUDY ABROAD OPPORTUNITY

SPRING 2022

ARTS.3980 DOCUMENTARY IMAGE

COURSE IN PHOTOGRAPHY

WITH TRAVEL TO THE AZORES ISLANDS, PORTUGAL

Course Information

This course is a 3-credit advanced elective, focused on the medium of photography and will take place in the spring semester of 2022. Through readings, research, and image-making students will work on developing their visual storytelling skills. A part of the course is an engagement with the large Azorean community living in Lowell, MA and exploration of their connections with the mid-Atlantic islands they left behind. Students with previous photography experience are encouraged to apply, but students from other humanities related programs would be strongly considered.

Course name:	ARTS.3980 Documentary Image
Instructors:	Pavel Romaniko (Pavel_Romaniko@uml.edu) Anna Isaak-Ross (Anna_IsaakRoss@uml.edu)
Class meetings:	TBD
Trip Dates:	May 16 -27 (dates may change)

- Financial aid and scholarships are often available, direct students to the Office of Study Abroad & Int'l Experience
- This course qualifies as Global Engagement courses within the River Hawk Experience Distinction (RHED)
- This course open to Immersive Scholars
- Honors College students can turn their course into Honors credit
- Students w/out the proper pre-requisites can see instructors for approval to enroll.

Scholarship & Application Information

Guaranteed funding of $1000 minimum (up to $1500)

- The College of Fine Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences will offer the opportunity to apply for the "Dean's World Ready Scholarship" to all students in the college applying to this faculty-led course with travel.
- Students who complete their application by the deadline are eligible.
- Applications can be submitted to the Office of Study Abroad, University Crossing Rm 370 or via email at studyabroad@uml.edu
- Application process: <https://www.uml.edu/international-programs/policies-procedures/Procedures.aspx>