Study Business in Aarhus, Denmark

AARHUS UNIVERSITY
SEMESTER OR YEAR-LONG EXCHANGE

The College of Management supports students in gaining international experience in Management. It is more important than ever to understand business in the global environment. Studying business at Aarhus University is one such opportunity for students to spend one semester or one year studying abroad. You can find within this brochure information about courses that have been previously approved for transfer in the College of Management, as well as a few of the many reasons why Aarhus is a great destination to study in.

Life in Denmark

Denmark is ranked one of the worlds most "livable places" with the highest level of income equality and ranked the worlds "happiest country". The campus is housed in the city center, and as an extremely bicycle friendly city all of Aarhus is within reach. Surrounded by coast line, home to Denmark's biggest student population, and accessibility to the rest of Europe makes Aarhus a great destination to study abroad.

Housing

Aarhus University offers housing placements for exchange students around the city of Aarhus in dorms and apartments. The costs of housing vary by location and type (single, studio, shared apartment) ranging from $350-700 per month for rent. You will live with other AU students and will never be more than 30 minutes from campus.

Student Life

AU offers a host of ways to get involved on campus and around Aarhus. AU hosts events every semester such as the "Kapsejls", a student boat race throughout Aarhus. As a new international student you will be matched with a AU student "buddy" from your major who will meet with you upon your arrival. There are also student clubs, organizations, and volunteer opportunities to get involved. Under your student visa you are also eligible to work up to 20 hours per week in Aarhus.

Details

The Maastricht program is administered in the U.S. by USAC and in the Netherlands by the Maastricht Center for European Studies (CES). While USAC will assist you with all pre-departure logistics, the CES staff will operate the program abroad, including providing the mandatory on-site orientation, organizing field trips, and overseeing your general well-being.

Sample of Included Field Trips

Most courses offered during summer or semester will include field trips to relevant locations within and around Maastricht to complement your classroom instruction. These trips may include a 4-day trip to Berlin for orientation, a 2-day Dutch cultural weekend, and a cultural weekend in Paris.

Due to continually evolving COVID-19 regulations some tours and field studies may or may not be available during the term you choose to study abroad.*

Housing Options: Find your own accommodations or use Maastricht University's International Student Guesthouse

API API offers students the opportunity to study in Barcelona, Spain, through the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona (UAB). Bordered by France to the north and the Mediterranean Sea to the east, Barcelona is one of the most 'European' of Spanish cities and is among the most popular destinations for U.S. students due to its fascinating culture and exciting social and political environment. This program was specifically designed for students who wish to complete courses primarily in English, in combination with a Spanish language course (offered at all levels). The academic experience in Barcelona is complemented by API's robust array of cultural activities and excursions, all of which are included at no additional cost!

API offers students the opportunity to study in Seville, Spain, through Universidad Pablo de Olavide (UPO). UPO is a public institution located on a beautiful 345-acre campus, and is known for its strong academics, innovative research, and a highly educated faculty. This program caters to the needs of those with little or no background in Spanish by offering Spanish culture, business and science classes taught in English. Students at all levels may take courses in English with Spaniards. Students with more advanced study in Spanish can also choose from a variety of classes in Spanish culture and civilization. The academic experience in Seville is complemented by API's robust array of cultural activities and excursions, all of which are included at no additional cost!
